AN APPRENTICE to the Printing Business, wanted at this office immediately.

The Lecture by A. L. Stone of Boston, to which allusion was made last week, is arranged for Friday evening the 9th, at the Presbyterian Church at 74 o'clock. The subject is "Home and Abroad," tickets 15 ets. Our citizens, we presume could hardly be constrained to lose this lecture, and of course will all be present.

"WHO IS THAT BELL TOLLING FOR !" WAS the rather startled inquiry of many of our citizens, as the solemn and measured tones boom-I from the iron-tongued monitor of the Orshodox Church, between 2 and 3 o'clock, on Friday afternoon of last week. The coincidence of tolling out of the world a departing spiritpossessed at this particular juncture more than ard's philosophy. common interest. The mind at once reverted to the Virginia tragedy, and the fitness of the circumstance-few knowing, or supposing that the two things had any connection-brought a gleam of pleasurable emotion to the minds of many. Nobody thought for a moment, that hard-shelled conservatism could recognize in the sacrifice of old John Brown, anything deserving of sympathy or condolence, or that there was enough of that sort of hardihood in our village, which would think of turning the venerable bell of that church to so unbollowed a use. The conclusion arrived at in our own, as well as the minds of many others, was that some aberrated spirit had courted the distinction of accompanying that of the old martyr to that paradise, to which martyrs and "dying thieves" are distined. Hence the coincidence. The reader will judge of the surprise that took possession of us, as we afterwards learned that the tolling observance was in accordance with the expressed wish of Mayor HENDRY, backed by that of some score of our citizens, and for no other purpose than as a sympathetic recognition of the death of him, who fell a sacrifice to the conviction that the law of God is paramount to human enactments. Mayor Hendry, though heretofore in regular fellowship with the little knot of conservatives of our village, has not suffered his party predilections to get the adwantage of his humanity in respect to the extraordinary proceedings connected with the trial and execution of the heroic, but erring old man. The act alluded to, of so little consequence in itself, has stirred up the rancor of a few of our gentle-when unruffled-citizens. though it was not done, we are persuaded, in any bravado or offensive spirit, hut in such an one simply, as would prompt the dropping of a sacrifice.
